

Question 34

Business Intelligence (BI) is the technological process of collecting, analyzing and transforming raw business data into actionable insights. It helps organisations to eliminate inefficiencies, spot market trends and make strategic data driven decisions

BI Tools

Tool	How it helps the business
① Power BI - A cloud based analytics platform	- It seamlessly integrates Excel, Sharepoint & Teams thus allowing business to pull data across departments, automate reports and build interactive dashboards - KPIs can be easily tracked, shared reports can be collaborated and bottlenecks spotted in real-time by decision-makers
② Tableau - a highly visual drag & drop analytics platform	- allows organisations to see and understand their data without needin advanced coding skills. - helps to uncover hidden patterns, correlations and outliers across massive datasets - allows teams to connect live databases and use visual models to predict future behavior optimize supply chain and quickly test different business scenarios